

Intel 360

A turn-key crime management and intelligence tool

Intel 360 helps national retailers, BCRPs and security companies map, analyse and report crime, proactively reducing criminal behaviour in their organisations.

Why national retailers use Intel 360

Providing the UK's best brands with the tools to enhance their crime management, reporting and intelligence gathering operations.

Manage intelligence across locations and departments.

Analyse crime through sharing CCTV video and images.

Report shoplifting incidents directly to the police.

Map organised crime gangs and monitor their activity.

Easily identify known crime vehicles and their occupants.

Lowers operational costs through paperless operations.

“This exceptional platform offers 24/7 instant access to real-time intelligence, empowering our retail members to securely report and access critical information. Its innovative features, including a direct chat facility, voice recognition, and seamless accessibility via desktop and mobile app, make SentrySIS an indispensable tool in fighting retail crime.”
